

Erigeron wilkenii

WILKEN FLEABANE

Photo Copyright © 1999 by L. Riedel

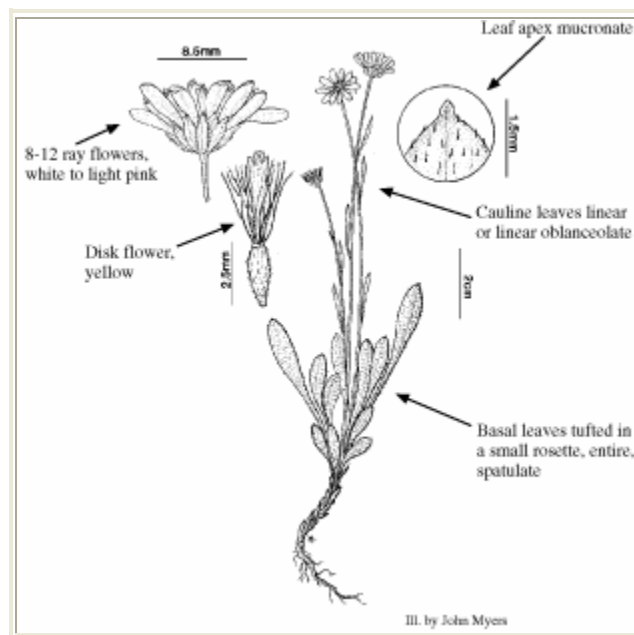

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Asteraceae (Sunflower Family)

Look Alikes: E. nematophyllus tends to have wider leaves. It is possible that these are the same species.

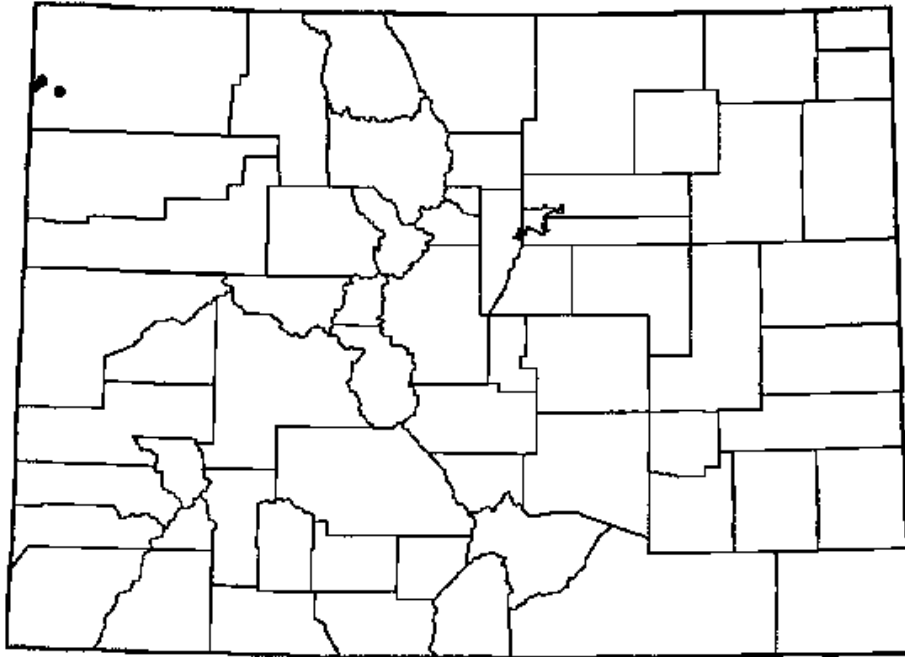

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Flowers late May-June.

Habitat: Small canyons, in soils derived from sandstone of the Weber Formation. Often partially shaded by short-statured pinyon and juniper trees.
Elev. 5200-7000 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Siems

Distribution: Endemic to Colorado (Dinosaur National Monument, Moffat Co.).

References: Cronquist et al. 1994; O'Kane 1990.