

Photo Copyright © 1999 by S. Spackman

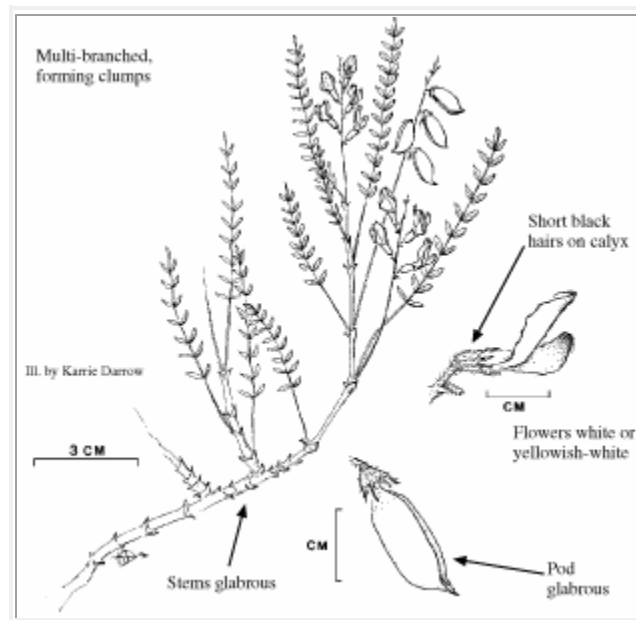

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Fabaceae (Pea Family)

Look Alikes: A. eastwoodiae has purple flowers. (A. debequaeus may be a white color form of purple-flowered A. eastwoodiae.)

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Late April-May/May.

Habitat: Varicolored, fine textured, seleniferous, saline soils of the Wasatch Formation-Atwell Gulch Member. Barren outcrops of dark clay interspersed with lenses of sandstone. Elev. 5100-6400 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by S. Spackman

Distribution: Colorado endemic (Colorado River Valley near Debeque, Garfield and Mesa Cos.).

References: Barneby 1964; O’Kane 1986 and 1988; Welsh 1985.