

Astragalus ripleyi

RIPLEY MILKVETCH

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

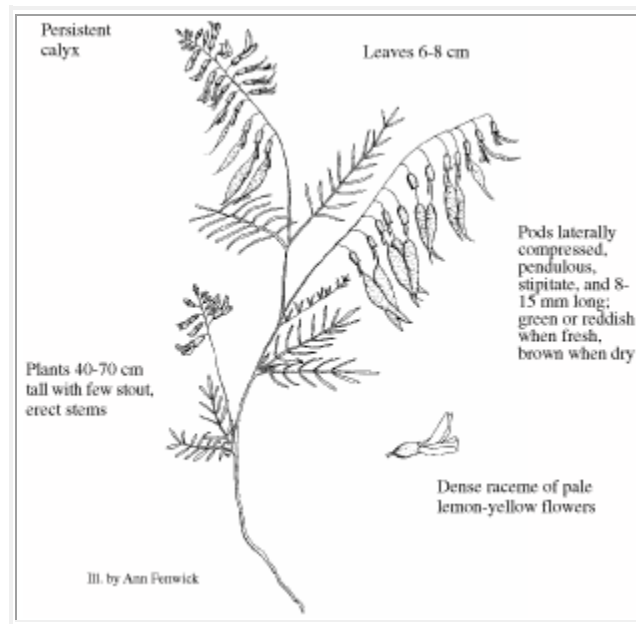

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Fabaceae (Pea Family)

Look Alikes: A. lonchocarpus has cream to white flowers and dorsiventrally compressed pods.

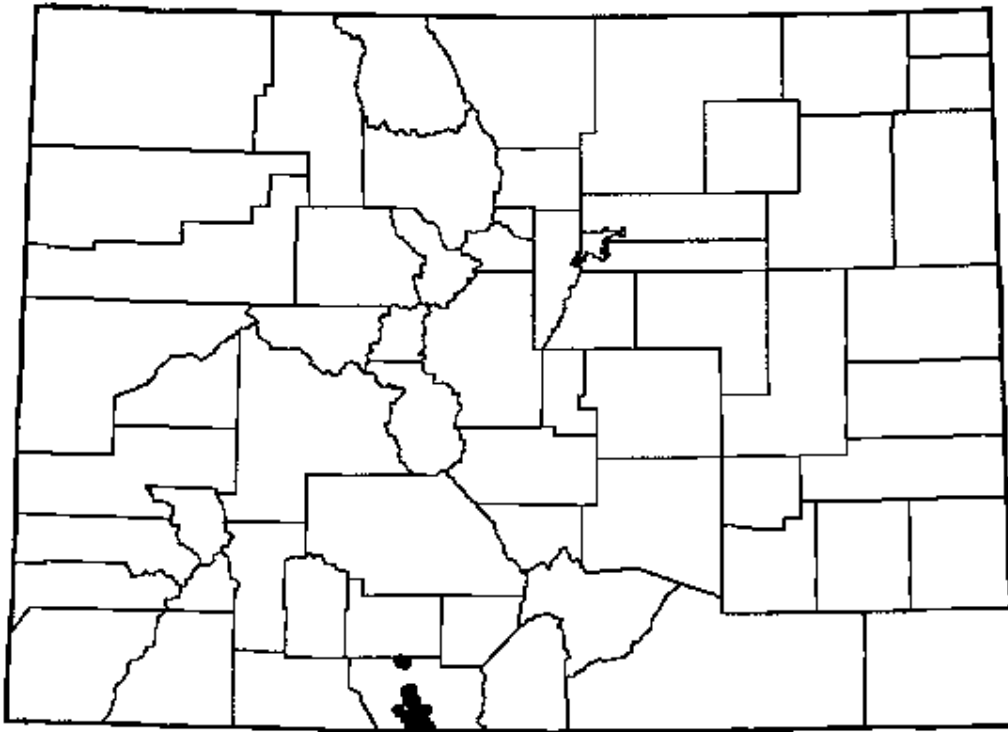

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Late June-July/July-early August.

Habitat: On volcanic substrates in open-canopy ponderosa pine-Arizona fescue savannah, or along the edges of mixed coniferous woodlands where Festuca arizonica is dominant. Elev. 8200-9300 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by T. Naumann

Distribution: New Mexico and Colorado (Conejos Co.).

References: Barneby 1964; Braun 1988; Naumann 1990b.

