

Salix lanata ssp. calcicola

LIME-LOVING WILLOW

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

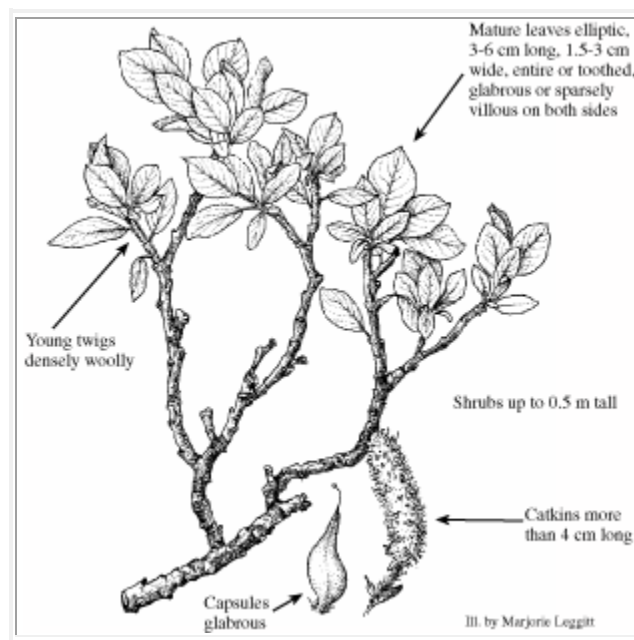

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Salicaceae (Willow Family)

Look Alikes: S. myrtillofolia and S. wolfii have shorter catkins, and young twigs that are short-pubescent. S. wolfii leaves are pubescent on the upper and lower leaf surfaces.

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Catkins mature in July.

Habitat: Calcareous lakeshores. Elev. 12,000 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 B. Jennings

Distribution: Alaska and Yukon, south to British Columbia and Alberta; disjunct in Colorado (Gunnison and Park Cos.).

References: Carter 1988; Hultén 1968; Welsh 1974.

