

Penstemon harringtonii

HARRINGTON BEARDTONGUE

Photo Copyright © 1999 by C. Crawford

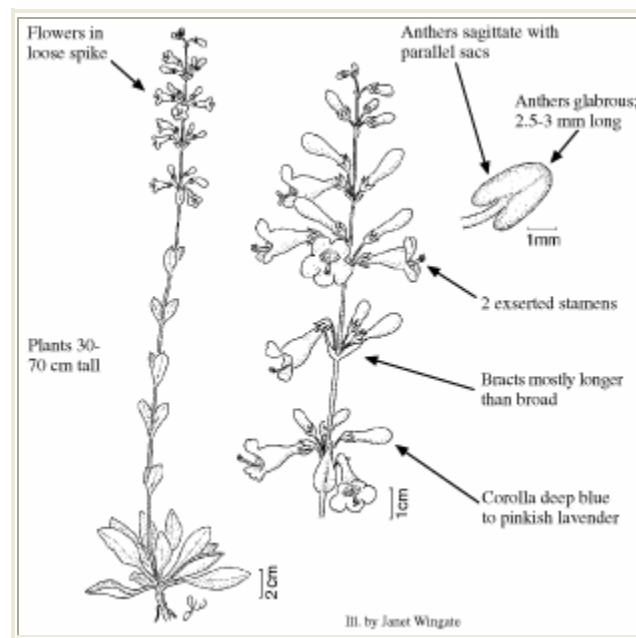

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Scrophulariaceae (Figwort Family)

Look Alikes: P. osterhoutii anther sacs are widely divaricate and stamens are not or scarcely exserted. P. cyathophorus has 4 stamens exserted. P. watsonii staminode is not or just exerted.

Flowering/Fruiting Period: June/July-August

Habitat: Open sagebrush or, less commonly, pinyon-juniper habitats. Soils are typically rocky loams and rocky clay loams derived from coarse calcareous parent materials. Elev. 6800-9200 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

Distribution: Colorado endemic. Eagle, Garfield, Grand, Pitkin, Routt and Summit Cos.

References: Buckner and Bunin 1992; O’Kane 1988; Penland 1958; Scheck 1994.

