

Trichophorum pumilum

LITTLE BULRUSH

Photo Copyright © 1999 by J. Sanderson

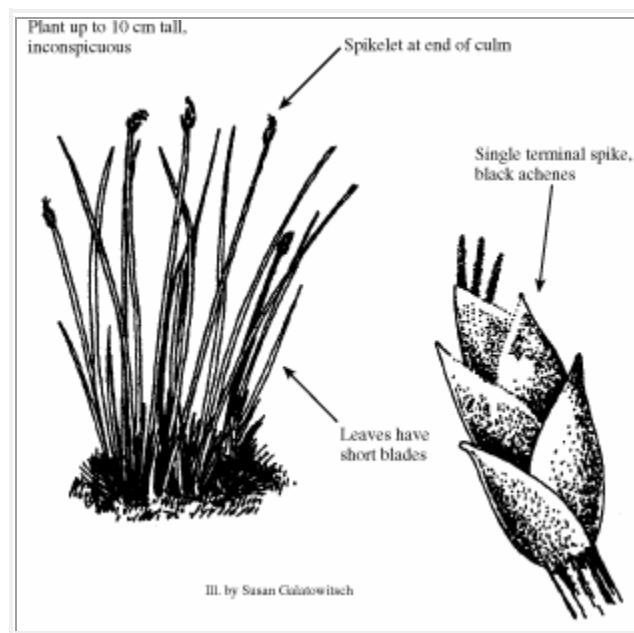

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Cyperaceae (Sedge Family)

Synonym: Scirpus pumilus, S. rollandii

Look Alikes: Only species of Trichophorum in Colorado. Scirpus species have more than one flowering spike. Eleocharis species leaves lack blades.

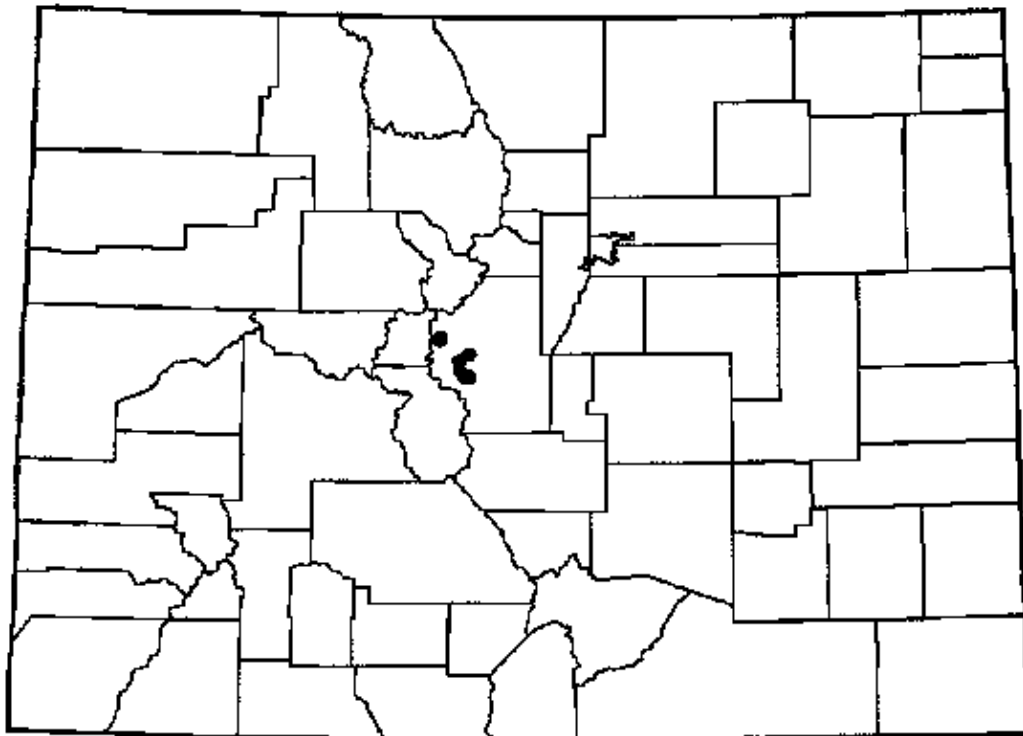

Flowering/Fruiting Period: June-July/August-early September.

Habitat: Moss hummocks in very rich fens. Moss margins in willow dominated wetlands. Elev. 9300-11,000 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by J. Sanderson

Distribution: A circumboreal species. Eurasia, Yukon territory east to Quebec, south to California and Colorado (Park Co.).

References: Cooper 1990; Hitchcock and Cronquist 1973; Welsh 1974.