

Photo Copyright © 1999 by S. Spackman

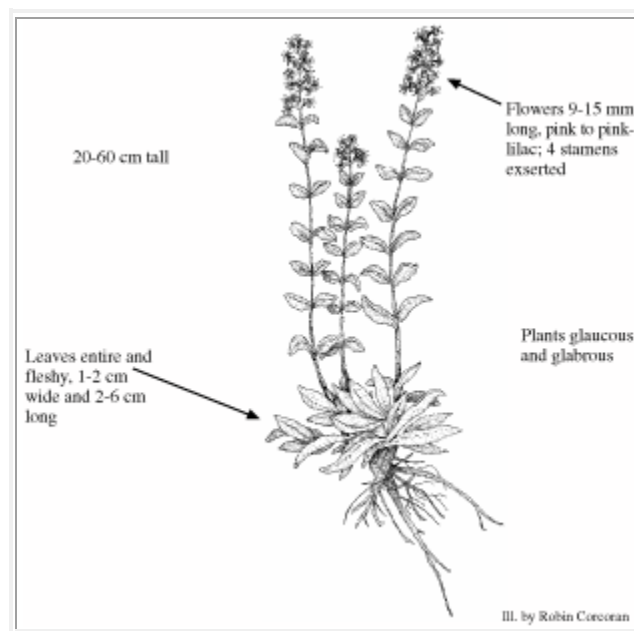

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Scrophulariaceae (Figwort Family)

---

Look Alikes: Difficult to distinguish from P. harringtonii where sympatric unless in peak anthesis. P. harringtonii has 2 exserted stamens. P. osterhoutii has a bearded, broadly expanded staminode that is barely or not exerted.

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Flowers late May-June.

Habitat: Rocky clay loam soils of sagebrush hills and flats. Elev. 7000- 8500 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by J. Burt

Distribution: S Wyoming and Colorado (Grand and Jackson Cos.).

References: Caddis-Burrell 1989; Cronquist et al. 1984.