

Astragalus duchesnensis

DUCHESNE MILKVETCH

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

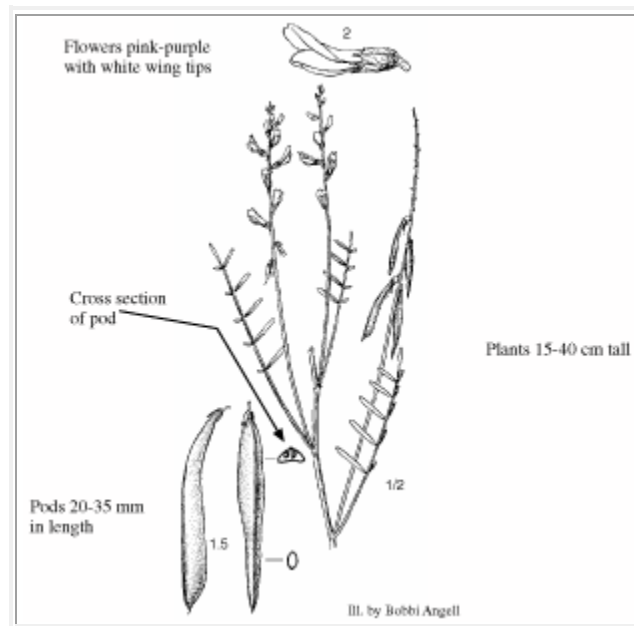

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Fabaceae (Pea Family)

Synonym: Lonchopaca duchesnensis

Look Alikes: A. convallarius has shorter pods (10-12 mm in length) and flowers that are greenish-white and tinged with purple.

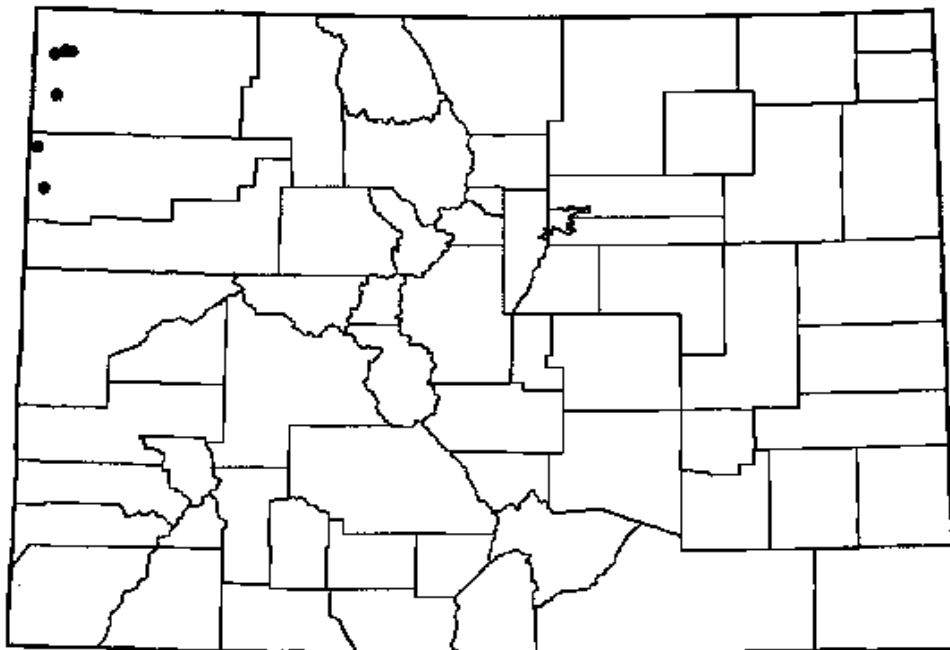

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Flowers late April-June.

Habitat: Pinyon-juniper woodlands and desert shrub communities; around sandstone or shale outcrops. Elev. 4600-6400 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

Distribution: Utah (Uintah and Duchesne Cos.) and Colorado (Moffat and Rio Blanco Cos.).

References: Barneby 1964 and 1989.

