

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

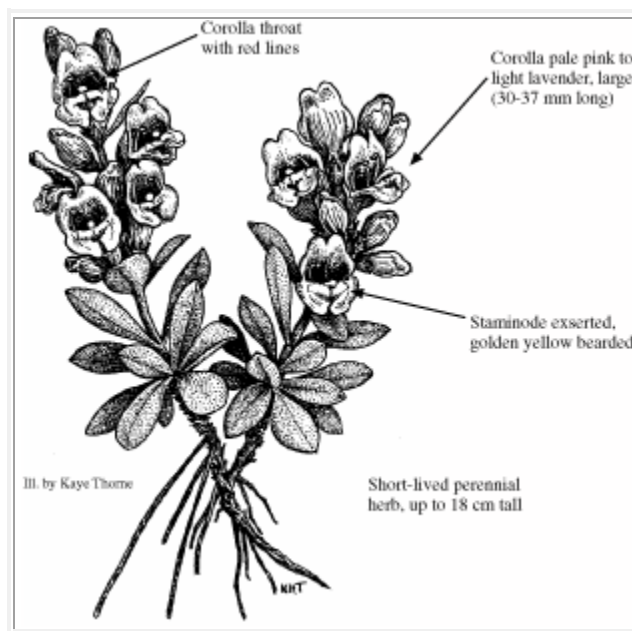

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Scrophulariaceae (Figwort Family)

Look Alikes: Distinct from other sympatric Penstemon species by the large, pinkish lavender corollas with dark violet lines in the throat, and exerted, golden yellow bearded staminode.

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Flowers late May-early June.

Habitat: Talus slopes and knolls of Green River Formation shales in sparsely vegetated desert shrub and pinyon-juniper communities. Elev. 5800-6000 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by courtesy of the Colorado Natural Areas Program

Distribution: E Utah and Colorado (Rio Blanco Co.).

References: Cronquist et al. 1984; Galatowitsch and O’Kane 1985; Graham 1937; O’Kane 1988; Welsh et al. 1993.

