

Saussurea weberi

WEBER SAUSSUREA

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

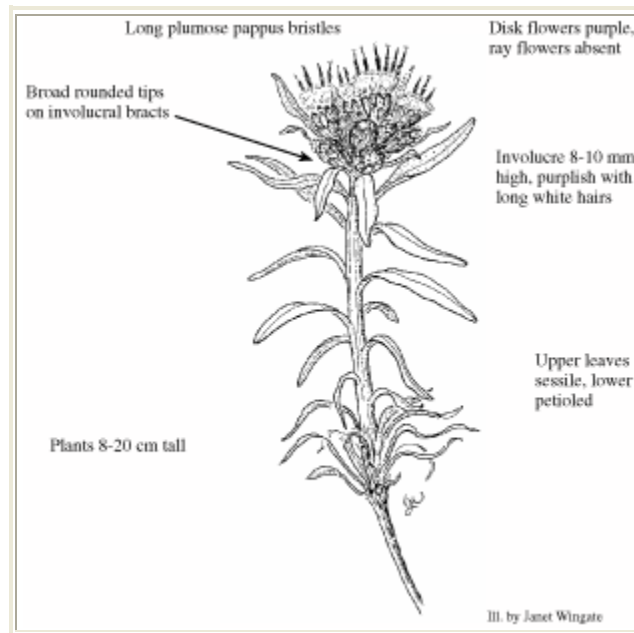

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Asteraceae (Sunflower Family)

Look Alikes: None, this species is the only member of this genus in Colorado.

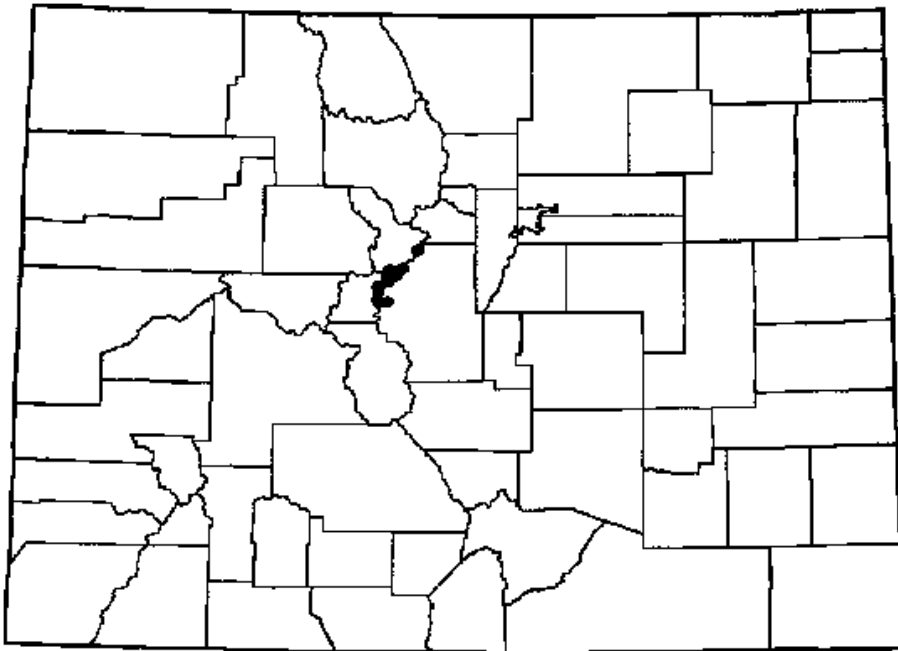

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Flowers late July-August.

Habitat: Gravelly tundra or scree slopes; exposed sites with poorly developed soils derived from Leadville Limestone and Manitou Dolomite. Elev. 10,500-14,300 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

Distribution: Montana, Wyoming and Colorado (Park and Summit Cos.).

References: Fertig 1994b; O'Kane 1988; Peterson et al. 1981.