

Astragalus lonchocarpus var. hamiltonii

HAMILTON MILKVETCH

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

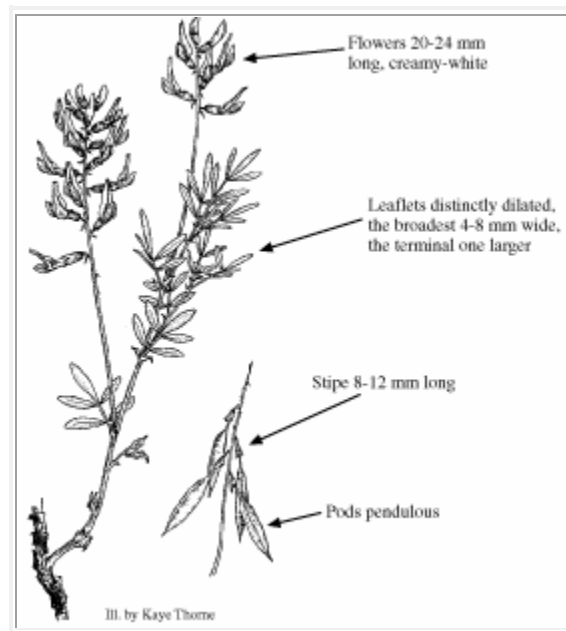

Illustration Copyright © 1999

Fabaceae (Pea Family)

Synonym: Astragalus hamiltonii Look Alikes: A. lonchocarpus var. lonchocarpus does not have dilated leaflets.

Flowering/Fruiting Period: Flowers May-June.

Habitat: Gullied bluffs and ridges, in desert shrub and juniper communities, in soft sandy clay soil overlying sandstone or shale. Elev. 5240-5800 ft.

Photo Copyright © 1999 by B. Jennings

Distribution: Utah and Colorado (Dinosaur National Monument, Moffat Co.).

References: Atwood et al. 1991; Barneby 1964 and 1989; O’Kane 1988.